Sample 2025 Candidate Declaration Packet

Dear Potential Candidate,

Vineyard has a mayor and three City Council seats up for election this year. If you are thinking about running for office, it is important to familiarize yourself with the basic requirements. The enclosed documents are samples of the documents you will fill out when you come to the election office to declare your candidacy. There is a $50.00 filing fee required at the time of declaration.

You must declare in person at the City Recorder's office at 125 South Main Street, Vineyard, Utah 84059. The declaration period runs June 2 – 6, 2025. The hours will be Monday through Friday 8:00 am to 5:00 PM on a first-come, first-served basis (no appointment necessary). We will be taking headshot photos of you for our public notices. If you wish to provide one for us, please email it to us before the end of the filing period.

If you are going to be out of the state for the entire filing period, you will need to contact us ahead of time to pick up the documents. The documents must be signed by you in front of a notary public. You will then send the original, signed documents with a designated agent to our office during the filing period. You will need to be accessible by video chat while your designated agent is in our office. We will need to hear and see you.

To be eligible to run for an elected office in Vineyard you must meet the following qualifications:

- You are a registered voter in the municipality in which you are elected
- You have resided within Vineyard for 12 consecutive months immediately before the date of the election, which is November 4, 2025
- In accordance with Utah Constitution, Article IV, Section 6, you are mentally competent and have not been convicted of a felony, treason, or a crime against the elective franchise in this state. If you have had any of the above-mentioned convictions, your right to hold elective office has been restored under Section 20A-2-101.3 or 20A-2-101.5

- You are not allowed to hold a municipal office and a county office at the same time
- You will file all the required financial disclosure statements

New forms that are required this year are:
Name Variation Form - if you are using a nickname or a variation of your legal first name.

Conflict of Interest form – we made the form fillable and recommend you fill it out ahead of time and bring it with you when you come to declare.

Please note that running for office requires a significant commitment of your time and effort and may involve personal and financial sacrifices. However, if you are passionate about making a positive difference in your community, running for office can be a rewarding and fulfilling experience.

A Candidate Orientation meeting will be held on Monday June 9, 2025, from 5:00 – 7:00 pm in the City Council Chambers, 125 South Main Street. If you are unable to attend this meeting, please have a representative attend in your place to receive important information and materials.

The information you provide to the City Recorder in conjunction with the election is considered public. Upon request, the public will be given copies of your campaign files, including your address and phone number, unless you have requested that your address be private, and you have provided an alternate address or phone number. Campaign finance statements as well as conflict of interest disclosures are also public documents. This information will be made available on Vineyard's website and Lt. Governor's website.

The General election will be held on Tuesday, November 4, 2025. A Primary election, if needed, will be held on Tuesday, August 12, 2025.

B. Written procedures for election officials to use the master ballot position list.

In accordance with Utah Code Section 20A-6-305, election officers shall use the master ballot position list for 2024-2025 to determine the order in which to list candidates on the ballot for any election held during those years.

To determine the order in which to list candidates on the ballot, the election officer shall apply the randomized alphabet as so:

- The candidate's surnames as listed on the declaration of candidacy
- If two or more candidates have surnames that begin with the same letter, the list shall be applied to each subsequent letter in the candidates' surnames as listed on the declaration of candidacy
- If two or more candidates have an identical surname as listed on the declaration of candidacy, the list shall be applied to the candidates' given (first) names as listed on the declaration of candidacy

C. Written procedures for the Lieutenant Governor in conducting the randomization in a fair manner and record of the random selection process used.

The Office of the Lieutenant Governor will conduct the randomization process by drawing wooden letter tiles from an opaque bag and following these procedures:

1. A wooden tile with each letter of the alphabet printed is to be placed in an opaque bag
2. Three individuals are to be selected to draw tiles out of the bag
3. The order the individuals draw tiles out of the bag is selected at random by rolling the die
4. The person rolling the highest number on the die picks first, the second highest roller picks second, and the lowest roller picks third
5. Ties are broken by rolling the die until one of the individuals in the tie rolls a number that is higher than the other person they are tied with
6. Letters are pulled out of the opaque bag until all tiles are removed
7. The order the tiles were picked from the bag became the Master Ballot Position List

The randomization was done on Tuesday, January 9, 2024, at 10:00 am in the rotunda of the Utah State Capitol. Notice of the meeting was published on the Public Notice Website and broadcast live on Zoom. A recording of the meeting can be found on the www.vote.utah.gov website.

Candidate Name on Ballot – Summary Guide

(Utah Code § 20A-6-109)

Under Utah Code 20A-6-109 a candidate's name shall appear on the ballot as the Legal First Name + Legal Last Name. Use of a middle name, nickname, etc., can be used if the following requirements are met.

Default Name Format

- Legal First Name + Legal Last Name

Using Your Middle Name Instead of First Name

Allowed if all of the following are met:

1. You normally go by your middle name (or a common derivative).
2. By 5:00 p.m. on the last day of the declaration of candidacy period, you submit:
    - A written request specifying the middle name or derivative.
    - An affidavit by you, under penalty of perjury, affirming you are commonly known by that name.
    - Affidavits, under penalty of perjury, from five non-family county residents stating you are commonly known by that name.

Using a Nickname

Allowed if all of the following are met:

1. The nickname may not:
    - Imply you are someone else (living or dead).
    - Be a slogan.
    - Associate the candidate with an economic, religious, political, or other group, issue, or opinion.
    - Be offensive, profane, or spurious.
    - Be a title, rank, degree, certification, job description, or similar designation.

2. By 5:00 p.m. on the last day of the declaration of candidacy period, you submit:
    - A written request with the desired nickname and placement.
    - An affidavit by you, under penalty of perjury, affirming common use and you are not using the nickname to gain an advantage on the ballot.
    - Affidavits, under penalty of perjury, from five non-family county residents that you are generally known by that nickname.

Nickname Placement Options

You may place the nickname:

- Before or after your legal first name
- Before or after your legal middle name if on the ballot
- In place of your legal first name

Simplified Nickname Use

If the nickname is a common short form of your legal first name (e.g., Mike for Michael), you may request it without affidavits—just a written request by 5 p.m. on the day the declaration of candidacy period ends. You may use your middle name initial between your first and last name or use your first initial before your middle name.

Rejected or Ignored Requests

• Election Officer must respond within 5 business days.
• If rejected or no response, you may appeal to court within 5 days.

Name Conflicts

• Election Officer may add a legal middle name or negotiate another differentiation if candidates have similar names.

Ballot Order Rules

• Ballot order is based on a randomized alphabet list using your legal surname.
• Legal name governs ballot placement, even if a nickname or middle name is used.

I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees or volunteers.

I SHALL immediately and publicly repudiate support deriving from any individual or group which resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of an opponent, to methods in violation of the letter or spirit of this pledge. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this pledge or the laws governing elections.

I SHALL defend and uphold the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of Utah, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct my campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.

If a candidate fails to file a final Campaign Financial Statement with the city recorder, within 24 hours of the deadline, which is September 11, 2025 (primary election) or December 4, 2025 (general election), a $50 fine will be imposed.

Candidates for municipal office shall (a) report the total amount of all contributions and expenditures if the candidate receives $500.00 or less and spends $500.00 or less; or (b) reports all itemized contributions, including the amount and the name of the donor, the aggregate total of all contributions that individually do not exceed the reporting limit; and for each campaign expenditure, the amount of the expenditure and the name of the recipient of the expenditure.

The reporting limit means $50.00 for each calendar year. The financial report shall identify (a) each contribution of more than $50.00, and the name of the donor; (b) for each campaign expenditure, the amount of the expenditure and the name of the recipient of the expenditure.

The definition of contribution and expenditure includes reporting all in-kind and other non-monetary contributions received.

Each failure to file the required Campaign Financial Statement constitutes a separate offense. Signed Campaign Financial Statements received by the City Recorder are classified as a public record. State law requires that the financial statement be posted on the city's website and/or the Lieutenant Governor's website.
