Privacy Notice

Vineyard City is committed to protecting your privacy. The Community Development Department requests or collects personal data as part of your application when you apply for a business license for any of the following types:

- Business License
- Alcohol License
- Solicitor License
- Itinerant Merchant License
- Towing/Parking Enforcement Qualification
- Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU) License

At the time of application, this notice is provided in compliance with Utah Code 63A-19-402 to inform you about how your information will be used.

1. Why the Community Development Department Is Requesting Your Personal Data

The Community Development Department, through their business license specialist, collects only the personal data necessary to process business license applications. Providing this information helps the Department to efficiently serve you and fulfill governmental responsibilities.

2. Intended Purposes and Uses of Your Personal Data

Your personal data will be used for the following purposes:

- For the processing of applications
- To maintain a record and contact information for city staff and elected officials' use
- To maintain a Business License Directory on the Vineyard City website. (For home occupation businesses, this Directory only publishes the information that the business license applicant authorizes on their application.)
- To maintain a GIS Map of all Commercial and Home Occupation With Impact businesses on the Vineyard City website for public, city staff, and elected officials' use. (This GIS Map only publishes the business name, origination date, business license type, business description, and address.)

3. Consequences of Refusing to Provide Personal Data

Providing personal data is mandatory for obtaining a business license. If you choose not to provide the requested information, your application cannot be processed.

4. Data Sharing

Your personal data may be shared with the following:

- Vineyard City departments for their reviews of your application
- Entities that share personal data with or receive personal data from the Community Development Department on a regular or contractual basis, such as the Orem Fire Department, Utah County Sheriff's Office, Utah County Assessor's Office, Utah State Tax Commission, Timpanogos Special Services District, etc.

5. Record Series

Personal data collected by the Community Development Department for business licensing purposes will be included in this record series:

- Vineyard Retention Schedule 6 Licensing Records

Additional information on the Vineyard Retention Schedule can be found in the Vineyard Municipal Code 2.28.030.

6. Your Rights and Additional Information

You have the right to request a copy of this notice regarding personal data you previously provided. To request this information or to ask questions about how your data is handled, please contact:

Vineyard City Privacy Manager
