Privacy Notice

Vineyard City is committed to protecting your privacy. When the Recorder's Office requests or collects personal data, this notice is provided in compliance with Utah Code 63A-19-402 to inform you about how your information will be used.

1. Why the Recorder's Office Is Requesting Your Personal Data

The Recorder's Office collects personal data to process records requests, candidate filings and vacancies in elected office, applications, provide city services, and comply with legal requirements set forth in GRAMA (Utah Code 63G-2). Providing this information helps the Recorder's Office efficiently serve you and fulfill governmental responsibilities.

2. Intended Purposes and Uses of Your Personal Data

Your personal data will be used for the following purposes:

- To fulfill records requests (GRAMA Utah Code 63G-2)
- To maintain a record of those speaking publicly
- Election Administration
- For the processing of applications

3. Consequences of Refusing to Provide Personal Data

Providing personal data is mandatory for these services. If you choose not to provide the requested information:

- Your application or request for records cannot be processed.

4. Data Sharing

Your personal data may be shared with the following:

- Departments that share personal data with other departments and entities.
- Entities that receive personal data from the Recorder's Office on a regular or contractual basis: such as the Lieutenant Governor's Office, Utah County Recorder's and Clerk's Office, Utah State Archives, etc.

5. Record Series

Personal data collected by the Recorder's Office will be included in the following record series:

- As contained in the Vineyard Retention Schedule 18 Clerks Records.
- Additional information on the city's retention schedule can be found in the Vineyard Municipal Code.

6. Your Rights and Additional Information

You have the right to request a copy of this notice regarding personal data you previously provided. To request this information or to ask questions about how your data is handled, please contact:
